

Resetting Adult Sunday School

Your Role as an Adult Sunday School Leader

3 roles that every Sunday School teacher needs to know and embrace

_____ – guides the group to study and apply the Bible.

_____ – guides members to connect in fellowship and ministry.

_____ – guides the group to be on mission.

Teacher – guides the class to study and apply the Bible.

1. To teach with excellence you need to –

A. Know _____ you teach – the Bible.

B. Know _____ you teach – the needs, issues, concerns of members/families.

C. Know _____ to teach – teach with a variety of teaching styles.

2. _____ are better than _____.

3. Understand _____ – small, mid-size, large groups.

A. Discipleship happens best in the context of _____ and relationships happen best in the context of smaller groups.

B. The _____ I get, the _____ I have to get.

C. My new _____ –

i. How many people I _____ and send out to teach each year.

ii. How many _____ I start.

4. _____ yourself. Every teacher needs an _____.

Shepherd – guides the class members to connect in fellowship and ministry.

1. Contact everyone on your group's _____ list. Focus on absentees.
2. Build _____ through _____.
 - A. Teaching does not take place solely in the _____. You must build strong, caring relationships _____ Sunday morning. _____ can do that!
 - B. Fellowships every _____ weeks.
 - C. _____ fellowships.
 - D. _____ fellowships.

Leader – guides the group to be on mission.

1. Schedule multiple _____ throughout the year.
2. Ministry projects are great events for both _____ and fellowship!
3. Intentionally schedule community projects as a group, or _____ with another group.
4. Invite Preschool/Kid's Departments to join you! Preschool/Kids Departments can involve _____ on a Saturday.